If you are looking for housing assistance resources:

- If you have income, you can search for affordable housing at www.TNHousingSearch.org or by calling their free hotline for one-on-one assistance: 1-877-428-8844
- If you are currently staying in a hotel or doubled up with family or friends, you will unfortunately not qualify for most HUD-funded homeless resources. Please review the options above or call the LINC 2-1-1 Hotline for additional resource referrals at 211 or (855) 354-4211 or www.tn211.org
- If you are an individual (not family) currently staying in an emergency shelter or place not meant for human habitation (whether or not you have income), and want to be assessed for available housing resources:
 - Schedule an appointment with Catholic Charities of West TN: 901-722-4700 (for single adults 18+ with no children)
 - Please note: being assessed for housing does not guarantee housing, and it is possible you may not be eligible for any current housing openings. There is no fixed timeline for when an agency may contact you for housing after being assessed. This is not a housing waitlist.
